IN RESOURCES

Six cities. Five states. 14,600+ community members served. The 7th Annual Back 2 School Tour distributed 8,528 fully loaded backpacks, 412,556+ items, and $630,000+ in resources — barrier-free, with no ID required, no forms, and no cost. Each stop was shaped by the community it served, from West End Atlanta and Little Haiti Miami to South Central LA, Venice Beach, the Bronx, and Gary, Indiana, where the tour reached families living without power. Behind it: 190+ partner organizations, 35+ elected offices, and 350+ volunteers who did far more than hand out backpacks.

This is what community infrastructure looks like when you build it together.

GEAR UP: BUILT FOR PARENTS, WITH PARENTS

The Gear Up Workshop Series puts $10,027.50 in resources into each of five Ánimo campuses this September — $50,000+ total. Each three-hour workshop (remaining workshops Sept 17, 19, and 24) covers financial literacy, college and career readiness, and parent advocacy, with Spanish and English translation, free childcare, and food included. Families take home loaded backpacks, Baby2Baby diaper packs, body care products, nonperishable food, books, school supplies, and two $50 unrestricted gift cards per school — families decide. Partners: Green Dot Public Schools, Thrivent, LOMI, Earth of LA, Building College Success.

THE GALA RETURNS ON GIVING TUESDAY

December 1, 2026
6:30–10:30 PM
The Millennium Biltmore

Seven years in, A City United returns to The Millennium Biltmore on Giving Tuesday. The evening honors community-rooted work spanning the Crenshaw, Venice Beach, Atlanta, Miami, and the Bronx — crisis response, school partnerships, and a Relief Hub that never closed. Every dollar raised funds the three pillars: Crisis & Disaster Stabilization, School & Youth Stability, Community Health & Resource Access. The goal is permanence: trusted organizations that stay, listen, and build what communities actually need.
